In-Wall Timer - EI-501 White Cover

Item EI-501COV-WH

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The EI-501COV-WH is a user-installable white cover for the EI-501-WK countdown timer that quickly changes the color of the timer to match the room décor. Its neutral finish complements existing wall switches and décor for a clean, coordinated appearance. Ideal for replacing worn or damaged covers, it refreshes the timer's appearance without replacing the entire unit.

FEATURES

- Replacement Cover: Easy snap-on cover changes light almond timer to white.
- White Finish: Neutral color complements a variety of interior décors and electrical accessories.
- Clean Appearance: Provides a finished, coordinated look with existing wall switches and wall plates.
- Convenient Replacement: Refreshes the appearance of a worn or damaged timer cover without replacing the entire unit.
